Sawasdee Ka (Hello in Thai) - My name is Sumataya Bulpakdi. Currently, I am a graduate student in Deaf Education program at McDaniel College (formally known as Western Maryland College) in Westminster, Maryland. I would like to introduce myself. I am from Bangkok, Thailand; this is located in the Southeast Asia. I was born hearing in a hearing family and lost my residual hearing when I was 7 years old. Even with my residual hearing loss, I attended hearing schools all the way to high school. There were no interpreters and notetakers available at that time. When I was 18 years old, I lost my hearing again in my right ear. Shortly after my hearing loss, my family decided to move to Chicago, Illinois.

This is where I started to learn about American Sign Language, Deaf culture and its community. My hobbies are cooking (actually I used to work as a chef in a Thai restaurant when I lived in Chicago), reading books and magazines, and learning how to use different computer programs. I recently started learning how to knit. I earned my Bachelor of Arts specializing in Interior Design from Columbia College at Chicago, Illinois in 1993. After my graduation, I went back to Bangkok, Thailand to find a job. I worked as an interior designer for 3 years. Around that time in 1997, I had an opportunity to visit Sethsatian School for the Deaf in Bangkok, Thailand and met Beverly Buchanan who also graduated from Western Maryland College. She introduced me to their Deaf Education Program. I volunteered in her English classes for a year. I began to realize that being a teacher would be an interesting and challenging position for me. In 2000, I returned to America to pursue my Masters Degree in Deaf Education at McDaniel College. After one-and-a-half years in graduate school, my college required me to do practicum at a school that promotes bilingual philosophy.

I met Professor Eddy Laird, and he introduced to Indiana School for the Deaf. Finally, I am here at ISD. I am eager and excited to learn more about bilingual education and am looking forward to meeting all of ISD staff and students. I am very impressed with all of the ISD staff and students. I want to express my appreciation to Bob Kovatch, Glenda Zmijewski, David Geeslin and all of teachers who are giving me this wonderful opportunity to learn about ISD. I believe this will help me gain an immense experience during my two-week practicum.

Governor's State of the State Address – The State of the State Address by Governor O'Bannon will be closed captioned this evening. It will be broadcast on WTHR, Channel 6 at 7:30 pm. Further, American Sign Language interpretation will be offered inside the House Chambers. A Spanish-language translation is expected to be ready by January 21 and will be posted to the Governor's web site.

GIDC Invitational Basketball Tournament – On Saturday, January 18, 2003 in the Indiana School for the Deaf Caskey Gym. Games start at 10:00 am. General Admission is $5 for all day. The Team Fee is $125 with cash prizes. Coaches and Players' admission is $5.00. For more information, e-mail BBippus@isfd.state.in.us.

Sports Update

HS Girls Basketball - Northwest 93 Indiana 29 Facing the toughest team on our schedule was too much for us to compete. Their inside and outside shots were too much for us to handle. The Player of the Game was Justine Jeter (12 pts/12 rebounds/4 steals). Our current record is 8 – 6, and our next game at Columbus Christian on Tuesday, January 21.

HS Swimming – We swam against Sceecina. It was for girls only. The final score was 23-67. We tried our best. Chelsea Nemer came in first place in 50 Free with her personal best. Emily Schultz came second in 500 Free. Stasia Greenberg came in second place for 100 Breast. Our next meet is against Ritter and Washington on Tuesday, January 21 at our ISD pool at 4:15 pm. Come and support us!

Health Center News - Two ISD students have recently been diagnosed with shingles, which is a flare-up of the chickenpox virus that has lain dormant in the body. It exhibits itself as a painful red rash in various parts of the body along nerve lines. Deb Robarge has been in contact with Wayne Staggs, Communicable Disease at the State Department of Health, and he reports that shingles are not contagious except to those who have never had chicken pox or to pregnant women, especially in their first trimester. With that said, shingles is still only mildly contagious to others and requires extreme close body contact over a period of time. If any staff is immune-compromised or in the early stages of pregnancy, they should check with their Doctor. If you have any questions or concerns feel free to contact Deb Robarge at the Health Center.

CAPTIVATING QUARTERS

Exploring the Indiana school for the Deaf

by Megan Wegner, freelance writer

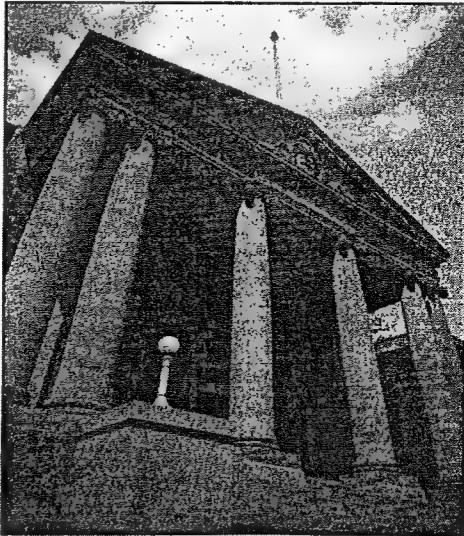

Founded in 1843 as an educational haven for the state's deaf students, the Indiana School for the Deaf consists of a mix of beautifully restored historic landmarks and abandoned buildings with renovation potential. The complex of buildings at the school is a treasure to the administration and students — it serves as a testimony to the school's founders and a promise to each student who passes through its doors. Originally located on Washington Street between Capitol Avenue and Illinois Street, the school has found its permanent home on ...nd Street across ...om the Indiana State Fairgrounds.

The 80-acre campus was once a farm. In fact, in the school's early years, portions of the grounds were used as pasture for grazing dairy cows, which supplied the school's milk. Apple, peach and cherry orchards — which once supplemented students' diets — have been replaced by the athletic grounds. While the school has undergone some serious updates in the past 159 years, a nostalgic drive into the campus on the winding, tree-shaded Jess Smith Boulevard takes you back in time.

The driveway leads to one of the original buildings of the school, Renovated in 1981, Alumni Hall houses both high school and middle school classrooms, the school's museum and an intact auditorium with ornamentation around the stage.

Alumni Hall. This Neo-Classical building was built in 1907 as one part of a quadrangle of buildings on the campus. Alumni Hall is the anchor of the quadrangle and makes an imposing first impression with its full-width portico and six Ionic columns supporting an impressive pediment. Renovated in 1981, the interior of Alumni Hall features lowered ceilings and original woodwork and coat racks. This building, which houses high school and middle school classrooms and the school's museum, also has an intact auditorium with perfectly preserved plaster ornamentation around the stage.

While the grandeur of Alumni Hall is still intact, the second portion of the quadrangle, Simpson Hall (once the girl's dormitory) now stands shuttered and silent since condemned with asbestos in 1982. This is one of the buildings the school hopes to renovate in the near future, especially as it is one of the more decorative structures on the campus. A grand marble stairway anchors the hall, and elegant, arched windows are perfect Neo-Classical complements. The limestone inscription "Faith and Hope, Love and Charity" speaks to those hopeful of its renovation.

West of Simpson Hall are Wehring Wetlands and Maryann's Prairie, two natural areas designed and constructed from a neglected area on the campus. The natural habitats are scientific learning areas complete with a pond, waterfall, fountain, bridge — and even a Monet garden modeled after the great artist's garden in Giverny, France, and a prairie full of native grasses and wildflowers of Indiana.

Two other original buildings to the school is the Ola M. Brown Cafeteria, named after a devoted educator at the school, and Beecher Hall. Arched multi-paned windows and keystones mark the fine architectural details of the once dining hall and school hospital. Today, this building has been declared structurally unsound, and it stands as another promising candidate for restoration like Alumni Hall.

While some buildings on the campus stand as stoic, ghostly reminders of a time past, the school is still very much alive. Its growing enrollment and active student life stand as a testament to the strength and vitality of the school. With its old shade trees, winding drives and impressive, brick buildings, the Indiana School for the Deaf is a proud example of a grand past preserved — with perhaps an even grander future ahead. ♦

Sports Update

HS Girls Basketball - Indiana 74 Columbus Christian 42. Good Team Defense helped us to get off to a good start. We kept changing our defenses to keep their players frustrated and confused. The Players of the Game were the entire ISD Team. Our current record is 9 - 6. Our next game is against Liberty Christian on January 23rd.

7th & 8th Grade Boys Basketball - Our boys played against International last night. Our boys were playing well and leading in the first three quarters. The International boys played hard to catch up due our boys making a lot of turnovers in the fourth quarter. The game went to overtime at 40 to 40. We paid them back and won the game with a final score of 49 to 41! Coach Sigafoose is very proud of them!! Our next final season home game against Orchard on Tuesday, January 28

5th & 6th grade Boys basketball - We played at International starting slow then building up to play our game plan. We played an excellent defense once again and won 53 to 25. This is our five straight win. Tyler Crace played superb with 19 points, 7 rebound, 4 steal and 4 assists. Gabriel Paulone also played great with limit playing time due ot his foul trouble. He got 16 points, 17 rebounds, 5 assists, and 4 steals. Tony Dall, Isaac Olvery, and Will Fetzer got 11, 4, and 3 points. Our record 9 and 6. We will play Orchard next Tuesday, January 28. This will be our last game at home.

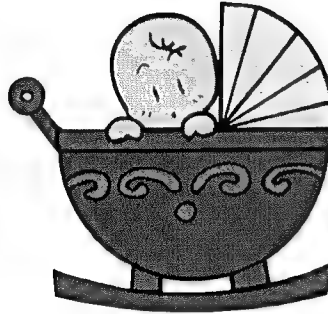

HS Varsity Basketball - Indiana 61 Columbus Christian 59 Prior to the game, we learned Columbus Christian would be a surprise team. They had already played 20 games with a record of 16-4 and competed in a tournament at Conseco Fieldhouse, the home of the Indiana Pacers. With no game for one week, we struggled with our defensive and offensive rhythm to get them going as we took a one-point lead at half time with Onye Davis' 3-point buzzer shot from the baseline. During the entire second half of the game, both teams continued to stay close. Despite our costly bad passes and mental mistakes, we managed to seal an ugly win at their homecourt with a critical free throw and rebound in the final seconds. The Player of the Game was Jon Mowl. Our current record is 7 - 3.

HS Swimming - We were scheduled to swim against Ritter and Washington, but the Washington team never showed up. The girls won with a score of 47 - 15. The boys lost; the score was 39 - 43. Chelsea Nemer came in first place in 50 and 100 Free. Katie Lechner came in 1st place in 100 Back. Anastasia Greenberg came in first place in 100 Breast. C.L. Young came in first place in 100 Free. Jeremy Wright came in first place in 500 Free. Galen McCallum came in first place in 100 Back. We compete against Tech and Arlington tomorrow afternoon at 4:15 pm in the ISD pool. Come and support us!

Sports Update

HS Girls Basketball – Liberty Christian 53 Indiana 40 A bad start in the first quarter had us falling behind by 11 points. We had several rallies in the last three quarters but not enough to cut the lead due to our turnovers and cold shootings (24.6 %). The Player of the Game is Amanda Krieger (9 pts/6 rebounds). Our current record is 9 – 7. The next game is against Ohio tomorrow during Homecoming.

HS Swimming – Yesterday, we had a swim meet against Tech and Arlington. The boys came in second place. The score was 83-73-19. Tech beat us, and we beat Arlington. Again, Jeremy Wright broke the school record in the 500 free. The new time record is 6:44.2. He also beat his personal best for 200 IM by 5 seconds. He was in 1st place in both events. Galen McCallum came in first place for 200 Free. C.L. Young got personal best for 50 Free by 3 seconds. The girls came in second place. The score was 132-79-18. Tech beat us, and we beat Arlington. On Wednesday, January 29, our basketball and cheerleading teams will head to OSD for the CSSD Tourney bringing the large bag with them. During the opening ceremony, each school will drop off the bag and Key Club will weigh each bag. The school with the heaviest bag will receive a surprise prize!! Sports Update

Basketball Homecoming 2003 – Sunny skies, dry roads, and cold temperatures greeted the throng of ISD Alumni, parents, students, and fans who filled Caskey Gymnasium for the 2003 Basketball Homecoming events.

In the opening game, the junior varsity boys fell in a nail-biter to University High School by a score of 46 – 38 in overtime. The Orioles shots would just not fall in the OT session.

Fans were treated to another edge of the seat game between ISD Varsity Girls and Ohio Deaf. A much-improved Spartan team would not give up and both teams struggled to post a lead and keep it. Fired up lady Deaf Hoosiers turned the corner in the second half and held off Ohio to take the win 52 – 49.

The Varsity boys jumped on the Spartans early and never looked back. Even scoring, good defense, and rebounding by the Deaf Hoosiers were too much as they coasted to a 74 – 38 victory.

Between the two varsity games, 26 seniors and their parents were recognized for their high school athletic accomplishments. Athletic Director, Brian Bippus said that the memories made by the Class of 2003 will last forever.

At half time, of the boys' varsity game, the 2003 Mr. and Ms. Oriole class representatives were introduced. Micaela Paulone, freshman, and Andy Choate, Senior, were named Mr. and Ms. Oriole. They were given flowers/gifts and participated in the ceremonial cutting of the homecoming cake later in the evening at the Homecoming party sponsored by ISD's Student Life staff.

Sports Update

5th/6th Grade Boys Basketball – We played a very strong Orchard team yesterday. They were tall and quick. We only had 7 players with me due to discipline problems. Coach Crace decided to play a slow paced game. He told the players to pass 20 times, and the players at first struggled, because they wanted to shoot and get some points. Coach Crace reminded them 20 pass over and over. Finally, they did this and sure enough Orchard defense became frustrated. We lost 33 to 22. Coach Crace is real proud of our boys, because they did a great job. The Orchard coach told me after the game that he was real impressed with us the way we played. Great job, men! Our record is 9 and 7, and our next game is this Thursday at Caskey. We will play against International in the first game of league playoff at 4:30pm.

On Friday, January 31- The Parent Infant Program will host a session called "What's New about Counseling Families with Newly Identified Children with Hearing Loss." This workshop will look at grieving stages and counseling issues as well as family systems and the impact on them. This is open to providers and staff. It is from 9:00-12:00 in the MPR. An RSVP is required.

Counseling Families with Newly Identified Children With Hearing Loss

This event is the third in a series of topics requested by First Step providers who serve children who are deaf, hard of hearing, or hearing impaired. Participants will learn about the socio-emotional impact on the family upon diagnosis of hearing loss in their infant. Since Universal Newborn Hearing was implemented in Indiana in July of 2000, more infants are being identified earlier with the goal of diagnosis by 3 months and early intervention before 6 months. Participants will also learn the grieving process these parents face and counseling strategies that may lessen the grieving process. Jodee Crace, a First Steps provider and former mental health counselor will present and provide various parental viewpoints.

Support Our Military Men and Women - Visit the Department of Defense web page, <http://www.defendamerica.mil/nmam.html>, and add your name to the list of folks thanking the men and women of the U.S. Armed Forces for defending our freedom. The compiled list of names will be sent out to our soldiers at the end of the month. As of this email, there were only about 1.6 million names (less than 1% of Americans). What a shame. We should ALL be on that list! It's National Military Appreciation Month, so please pass it on to your email friends. It only takes 10 seconds...literally!

7th & 8th Grade Boys Basketball - Our players played against Traders Point in the tournament. ISD defeated Traders Point in by overtime. The final score was 33 to 30. This is first tournament win for Coach Sigafoose in his 14 years of coaching!! He is very proud of the team who worked hard to win the game!! Good Job!! Our next game is at St Richard on Monday, February 3. The current record is 7 wins and 13 losses.

5th & 6th Grade Boys Basketball - We started our tournament yesterday. We played against International. They started off as a real aggressive team and played with heart. We were up by 8 at halftime. Coach Crace told the boys that he was disappointed at them, because they didn't played their best. In the second half, our boys really fired up and played aggressively winning 43 to 17. Our record is now 10 and 7. In the next round, we will play Orchard wich is the Number 2 Seed in the tournament; we are Number 6. It will be a tough game, but Coach Crace expects our boys to play tough with a big heart on Monday, February 3rd starting at 4:30pm in their game against Orchard.
